Leckpatrick Parish

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time – 23rd August 2020

What Must I Do Now?

Prayer is so important. To pray with the prayers that we all learned as children, but also to pray in our own words. To ask the Lord: "Lord, help me, give me counsel, what must I do now?" And through prayer we make space so that the Spirit may come and help us in that moment, that he may counsel us on what we all must do.

Prayer! Never forget prayer. Never! No one, no one realises when we pray on the bus, on the road: we pray in the silence of our heart. Let us take advantage of these moments to pray, pray that the Spirit gives us the gift of counsel.

– General Audience, May 7, 2014

Reflection: True mercy can only come through a deeply abiding relationship with Our Lord. Prayer helps us to continually see the world through God's eyes and to ask him to conform our will with his. Do you pray with your own words? The best way to learn is to try. Take five minutes to speak with Jesus.

A Student's Prayer for a New School Year

Lord Jesus, I ask for Your help as I begin this new school year.

Allow me to experience Your presence in the many blessings You put before me.

Open my eyes to the new challenges and exciting opportunities that this new school year brings.

Open my heart and mind to new friends and new teachers.

Give me a generous spirit to be enthusiastic with my studies and courage to accept new opportunities.

Help me to be attentive to my teachers and let me experience Your presence in my new friends.

Jesus, inspire me to do my best this year!

Amen.
